

1 exceptions?

2 DELEGATE PENNIMAN: This is to be one of the
3 exceptions. This is one of those problems of definition to 4 begin with. Is it a general law when it applies to a
5 disoolution or merger of counties? Some people think that 6 it is. In order to be safe, we do have it as one of the 7 exceptions.

8 THE PRESIDENT: I think that the only other time
9 that we have passed that phrase is in line 49 on page 2. Is 10 that to be an exception?

11 DELEGATE PENNIMAN: That is not to be an exception.

12 THE PRESIDENT: Well, Delegate Penniman, your first
13 answer could apply in part to that section also?

14 DELEGATE PENNIMAN: That is correct.

15 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Bamberger doesn't
16 look convinced. Can you explain that a little more fully 17 with respect to the sentence beginning in line 47 on page 2?

18 DELEGATE PENNIMAN: Can I ask Delegate Moser to 19 handle this?

20 THE PRESIDENT: I would rather have the Committee
21 on Style indicate what is intended. You said a moment ago
